

REBELAMA

PURE TASTE.

NO CHEMICALS.

NO COMPROMISES.

PERFECT ISN'T CRAZY.

IT'S

REBELAMA

The logo for REBELAMA features the brand name in a bold, white, sans-serif font. The letters are set against a vibrant red background that is shaped like a stylized, bubbly cloud or a series of overlapping circles. The letter 'L' is uniquely designed, with a small, white, cartoonish llama head integrated into its vertical stroke. The overall aesthetic is playful and energetic.

WE ARE REBELAMA

Since 2010, we've been on a mission to bring real, healthy food to the table. We were the first in Slovakia and the Czech Republic to introduce chia seeds and kick off the superfood revolution. And we helped pioneer freeze-drying as the most natural way to preserve fruits and vegetables — without losing their goodness.

OUR PHILOSOPHY

PURE INGREDIENTS.

NO CHEMICALS.

NO COMPROMISES.

At REBELAMA, we believe real food deserves real respect.
We refuse to fake it, twist it, or „improve“ what nature perfected. No chemicals. No empty promises. Just pure, untamed flavor – exactly as it was meant to be.

We don't follow trends.

We challenge them.

We don't settle for „good enough“. We fight for better – every single day, in every single bite.

This is more than just food.

It's a rebellion against the ordinary.

It's the courage to stay true when the world takes shortcuts.

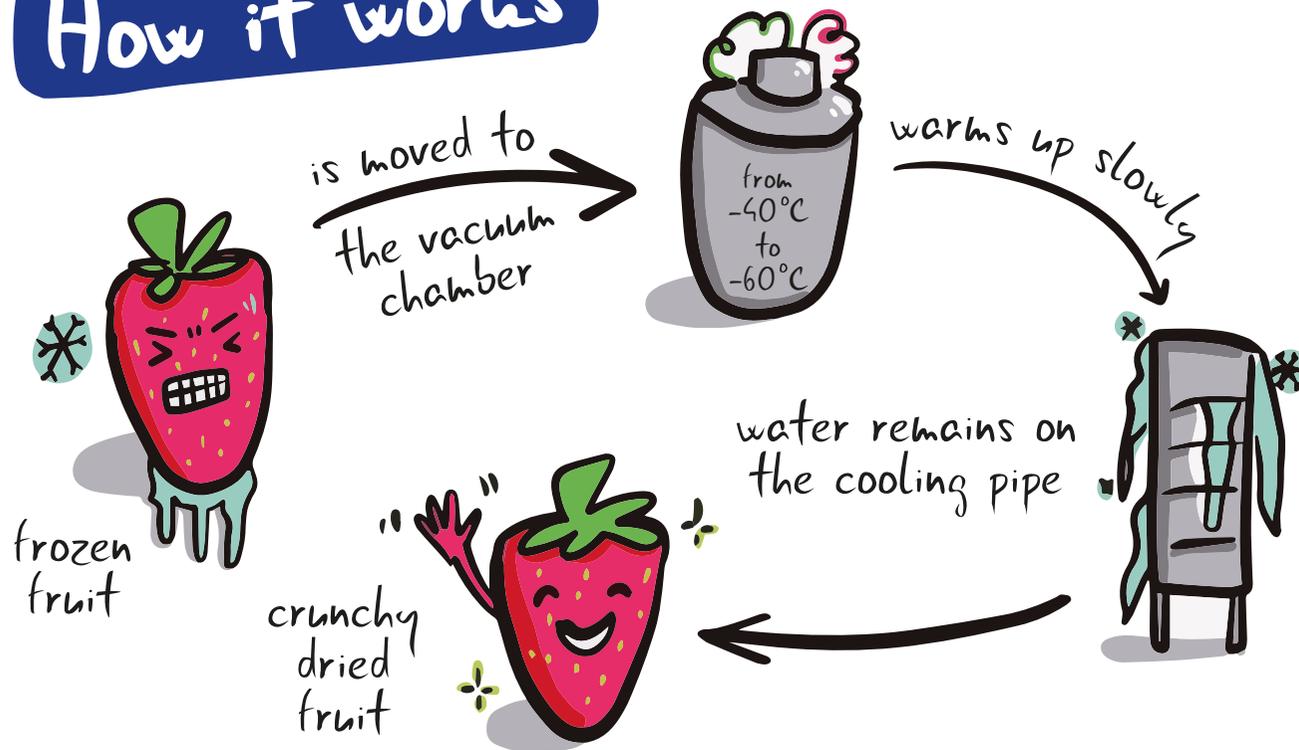

It's the taste of freedom.

WELCOME TO REBELAMA.

WHERE REAL WINS.

How it works

WHAT FREEZE-DRYING REALLY MEANS

Freeze-drying (also called lyophilization) is a gentle process where frozen fruit is placed in a vacuum chamber and slowly heated. The ice inside evaporates without melting, leaving perfectly dried fruit with great taste, texture, and nutrients.

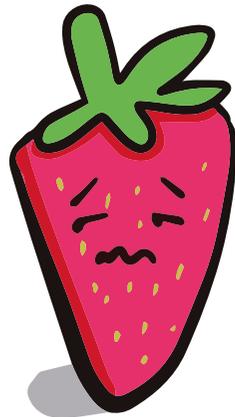

Wrong

so empty

- Nice
- Crunchy
- No vitamins

NOT ALL FREEZE-DRIED FRUIT IS CREATED EQUAL

Most producers speed things up by using hot oil or steam, pushing the fruit's temperature up to 80–90 °C. That destroys sensitive vitamins and minerals – but the fruit still looks crisp and dry. Burned or discolored pieces? They're usually ground into powder and sold anyway. And since the EU doesn't require producers to declare how freeze-drying is done, you may never know the difference.

How do we do it?

OUR WAY: GENTLE FREEZE-DRYING

At REBELAMA, we take a slower, purer path. We carefully control the process so the fruit never goes above 40 °C – the temperature where nutrients stay safe. We monitor every second, measure everything, and preserve everything nature gave us.

OUR TECHNOLOGY. OUR RULES.

- No hot oil. We use clean, even electric heating.
- We track the temperature of both the tray and the fruit.
- No bulky shelves – more space, less energy.
- Powered by solar energy.
- Quality checked from farm to final bite.

BECAUSE TRANSPARENCY BUILDS TRUST.

At REBELAMA, quality isn't a goal – it's the starting line. We believe that clean, safe, and high-quality food should be the norm, not the exception. That's why we are proud holders of the IFS FOOD certification, one of the world's most respected standards for food safety and quality.

WHAT DOES IFS FOOD CERTIFICATION MEAN FOR YOU?

- Every product is manufactured under strict safety and quality controls.
 - Full traceability of ingredients – from farm to final product.
 - Production processes that meet international standards and beyond.
- Regular independent audits to guarantee transparency and continuous improvement.

WE DON'T JUST CLAIM QUALITY – WE PROVE IT. EVERY DAY.

LET'S WORK TOGETHER

Wholesale, private label, and custom solutions.

We're rebels with a cause — and we love partnering with brands, retailers, and innovators who share our passion for pure, honest food.

Whether you need bulk freeze-dried fruits, a private label line of clean snacks, or a custom-made solution just for you, we're ready to create something remarkable together.

No shortcuts, no hidden ingredients — just real food crafted with pride.

WHAT WE OFFER:

- Wholesale supply of premium freeze-dried products
- Private label manufacturing with your brand's identity
 - Custom recipes and unique flavor creations
 - Full transparency and support at every step

Let's challenge the ordinary. Together.
